1. Advance booking: written (by mail, fax or email) to the event manager: name, first name, age, discipline, rank (belt color and rank), weight (only for combat) and dojo, until the 05th May 2018.
2. Every dojo has to appoint at least one judge in their registration (discipline, name and rank) for the competition their participants want to join. The appointed judges may be from another dojo but must not have been named already by them. You are not allowed to participate without appointing a judge!
3. You will receive a confirmation with our bank account data.
4. The entry fee is to be paid only via advance payment! Cash payment at the day of the competition will not be accepted!
5. By transfer of the entry fee until 13th May 2018 you are officially registered.
6. Late registration after the 13th May are only possible under consideration of special circumstances and in agreement with the head event manager until the 30th May. An additional fee of 10€ for late entries applies and the participant may only join already existing listings.
7. The registrations at the day of the competition are handled collectively by the leaders of the dojos and delegations through provision of valid budo passports. The registration desk closes at 8.30 am.
8. There will be an on site examination of the correct registration.

Important Rules:

1. No participation without a valid DAKO-, IMAF-, or budo-passport for 2018!
2. The host has the right to enforce his right as householder in case of violation of the house rules (e.g. violation of etiquette, unsportsmanlike behavior) without delay. During the championship only the organizer, the host, event staff, officials, dojo leaders, active participants and their trainer are allowed in the ring. Noncompliance leads to disqualification of the participant and expulsion from the event site.
3. The participants have to verify a valid rank in the discipline they want to participate in via their budo passport (IMAF, DAKO or related organizations)
4. The international dress code and dojo rules of the DAKO/IMAF apply (gi with obi, Pants and t-shirt, Hakama etc.). If possible, the rank has to be displayed at all times (obi, t-shirt).

5. All disciplines are divided into listings. If a discipline has only 4 or less participants, the host retains the right to either join them with other pools or cancel them. There are no winners without competition. In case of a cancellation, the dojo will be informed immediately. Entry fees that have become obsolete by cancellation will be refunded. The listings can be viewed at our homepage after the registration period has ended.
6. The competitions will be held in parallel on four (possibly five) battlegrounds. Maximum number of entries is therefore limited to 5 per participant. Should the participant not appear after having been called out twice via intercom and 1 minute waiting time, he/she will be disqualified for this discipline by the main official. A refund of entry fees does not apply in this case.
7. All weapons must be blunt and must not have any sharp edges. Machetes may be used by students with at least blue student rank and the age of 14.
8. We would like to point out, that the German laws for the bearing and using of weapons apply and have to be adhered to by all participants and officials! Our sports club is a branch of the Polizeisportverein Cottbus '90 e.V. and we emphasize the compliance to German laws.
9. Award ceremonies will take place after the kata and after combat. The winner will receive a trophy (single and team). The first, second and third places will receive a certificate and a medal. Fourth and fifth places will receive a certificate. Accolades will only be presented to the recipient personally.
10. The event is a non commercial championship.
11. The host organizer can not be held responsible for any accidents resulting in injury or damage and theft.
12. The participants are responsible for a sufficient insurance.
13. Participation in kata/form/anyo is possible at the age 6 and minimum kyu rank 10.
14. Teams in synchronous competitions or applications start with a maximum of 3 participants.
15. Participants in synchronous and form competitions have to perform an application that matches the level of the lowest rank member, not above.
16. Weapons for kata/form/anyo and their applications/synchronous competitions will not be provided by the organizer They have to be blunt and retain no sharp edge. The main official will check the weapons before the start of the competition.
17. Kata or step charts in the Japanese and non Japanese disciplines are valid for the respective next higher graduation according to the training programs of the DAKO and IMAF. A list with names follows. The final decision will be made by head official for the listing.

18. In the case of even point scores, a second kata has to be performed. The second kata will be prescribed in the respective discipline (see respective disciplines).
19. The participation in combat/kumite is restricted to participants of at least 14 and minimum 9th kyu rank /yellow belt/ a valid equivalent. Weapons for the combat will be provided by the organizer Further rules for equipment and combat will follow.
20. Juveniles who want to participate in combat/ kumite have to provide a written permit signed by their legal guardian and have to wear a complete set of protective gear (jockstrap, head and chest protection, mouth guard and protective gloves). A shinguard is recommended. Lack of a permit will lead to removal from the listing. A refund of an entry fee will not be possible in this case.
21. Adults participating in kumite have to wear at least a mouth guard, protective gloves and a jockstrap. In weapon combat a protective head gear and chest protection is required as well. Further protective gear is recommended.
22. The organizer does not provide any protective gear.
23. Padded weapons for bo-jutsu and combat arnis will be uniformly provided by the organizer
24. Every bout lasts two minutes.
25. Achieving 7 scoring hits will end every armed combat prematurely.
26. The bout is interrupted or stopped by word of the head official only.
27. Objections against decisions of the officials will be decided the day after the event. Therefore a written appeal and a fee of 30€ have to be submitted to the competition office at the day of the competition. The decision will be made by the responsible head official, the organizer, the host and one representative of the suitor and defendant. The head official leads the investigation. The decision of the head official is definite and final.
28. Medical assistance, if needed, will be provided.
29. The rules for the competition will be published separate from the announcement on the homepage www.kampfsport-cottbus.de

Agreement with the participant:

1. The organizer cannot be held responsible for any damages caused by theft, accidents, injury and their consequential damage. The participants have to provide sufficient insurance for themselves.
